Royal City Youth Soccer Club – Constitution

Society Act

Amended Constitution

[as amended by Special Resolution passed the 17 day of April, 1996]

1. The name of the Society is ROYAL CITY YOUTH SOCCER CLUB hereinafter called the “Society”.
2. The purposes of the Society are:
 - (a) to provide organized soccer activities that enable young persons in the community to have fun while enhancing their personal self esteem through the development of social, mental and physical skills;
 - (b) to promote the game of soccer;
 - (c) to provide for an exchange of ideas relating to the game of soccer and relating to the development of social and physical skills of young persons in the community;
 - (d) to cooperate and affiliate with Canadian Soccer Association and its affiliated Associates.
3. The Society shall be carried on without purpose of gain for its members and any profit or other accretions to the Society shall be used for promoting its purposes. No member of the Board of Directors shall be paid any remuneration for services rendered to the Society, but may be paid his or her reasonable expenses in acting as a director. This clause is unalterable.
4. Upon winding up or dissolution of the Society, the assets remaining after payment of all costs, charges and expenses properly incurred in the winding up, including the remuneration of a liquidator, and after payment of any other debts of the Society, shall be distributed to an amateur athletic organization or organizations in Canada, registered under the provisions of the Income Tax Act of Canada, which shall be designated by the Board of Directors of the Society. Any of such assets which had originally been provided for specific purposes, shall, wherever possible, be distributed to an amateur athletic association, registered under the provisions of the Income Tax Act of Canada, carrying on work of a similar nature of such specific purposes. This clause is unalterable.

Royal City Youth Soccer Club – By-laws

Here set forth, in numbered clauses, the by-laws providing for the matters referred to in Section 6(1) of the Society Act and any other by-laws.

[as amended by Special Resolution passed the 15th day of March, 2012]

- (2) Separate election shall be held for each office to be filled.
 - (3) An election may be by acclamation, otherwise it shall be by ballot.
 - (4) If no successor is elected the person previously elected or appointed continues to hold office.
34. (1) The directors may at any time and from time to time appoint a member as a director to fill a vacancy in the directors.
- (2) A director so appointed holds office only until the conclusion of the next following annual general meeting of the Society, but is eligible for re-election at the meeting.
35. (1) If a director resigns his office or otherwise ceases to hold office, the remaining directors shall appoint a member to take the place of the former director.
- (2) No act or proceeding of the directors is invalid only by reason of there being less than the prescribed number of directors in office.
36. The members may by special resolution remove a director before the expiration of his term of office, and may elect a successor to complete the term of office.
37. In accordance with Article 3 of the Constitution, no director shall be remunerated for being or acting as a director but a director shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred by him while engaged in the affairs of the Society.

PART 6 – PROCEEDINGS DIRECTORS

38. (1) The directors may meet together at such places as they think fit for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings, as they see fit.
- (2) The directors may from time to time fix the quorum necessary for the transaction of business and unless so fixed the quorum shall be a majority of the directors then in office.
- (3) The president shall be chairperson of all meetings of the directors; but if at any meeting the president is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the vice-president shall act as chairperson, but if neither is present the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairperson at that meeting.
- (4) A director may at any time, and the secretary, on the request of a director, shall, convene a meeting of the director.

39. (1) The directors may delegate any, but not all of their powers to committees consisting of such directors, members or both as they think fit.
- (2) A committee so formed in the exercise of the powers so delegated shall conform to any rules that may from time to time be imposed on it by the directors, and shall report every act or thing done in exercise of those powers to the earliest meeting of the directors to be held next after it has been done.
40. A committee shall elect a chairperson of its meetings; but if no chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present who are members of the committee shall choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
41. The members of a committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper.
42. For a first meeting of directors held immediately following the appointment or election of a director or directors at an annual or other general meeting of members, or for a meeting of the directors at which a director is appointed to fill a vacancy in the directors, it is not necessary to give notice of the meeting to the newly-elected or appointed director or directors for the meeting to be duly constituted, if a quorum of the directors is present.
43. A director who may be absent temporarily from British Columbia may send or deliver to the address of the Society a waiver of notice, which may be by letter, telegram, facsimile or electronic mail, of any meeting of the directors and may, at any time, withdraw the waiver, and until the waiver is withdrawn:
- (a) no notice of meetings of directors shall be sent to that director, and
- (b) any and all meetings of the directors of the Society, notice of which has not been given to that director shall, if a quorum of the directors is present, be valid and effective.
44. (1) Questions arising at any meeting of the directors and committee of directors shall be decided by a majority of votes.
- (2) The chairperson will not vote unless there is a case of an equality of votes.
- (3) In case of an equality of votes, the chairperson will cast his vote.
45. No resolution proposed at a meeting of directors or committee of directors need be seconded and the chairperson of a meeting may move or propose a resolution.
46. A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors and placed with the minutes of the directors is as valid and effective as if regularly passed at a meeting of directors.
